Here and There

LetterLight U was trying to fly.
“Up, up, up and away! I’ll run and run and jump.”

“Up, up, up and away!
Up, up, up and away!
I’m flying! I’m flying!
Up, up, up and away!”

LetterLight U went here and there.

She saw Mr. H.

Mr. H had on a tan hat.

He was eating a nut in a hut.

LetterLight U went here and there.

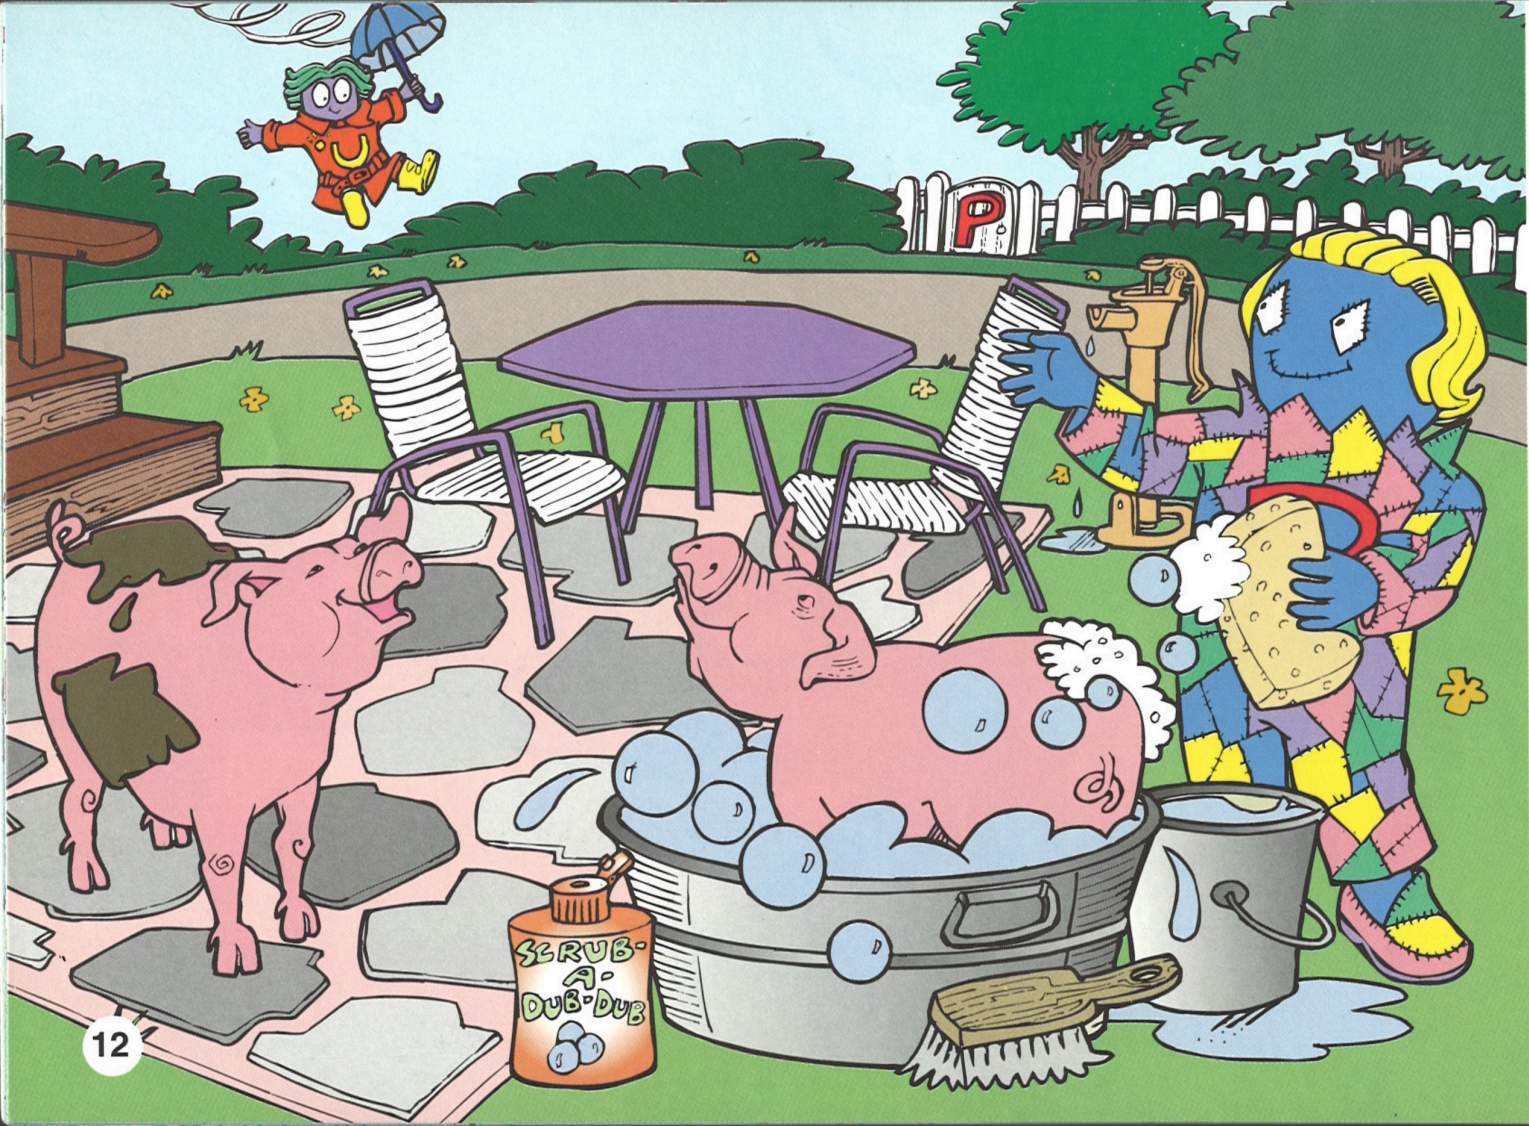

She saw Ms. J.

Ms. J sat on a mat.

She was eating fish in a dish.

LetterLight U went here and there.
She saw Mr. Z.
Mr. Z was on a big ship.
He was having fun in the sun.

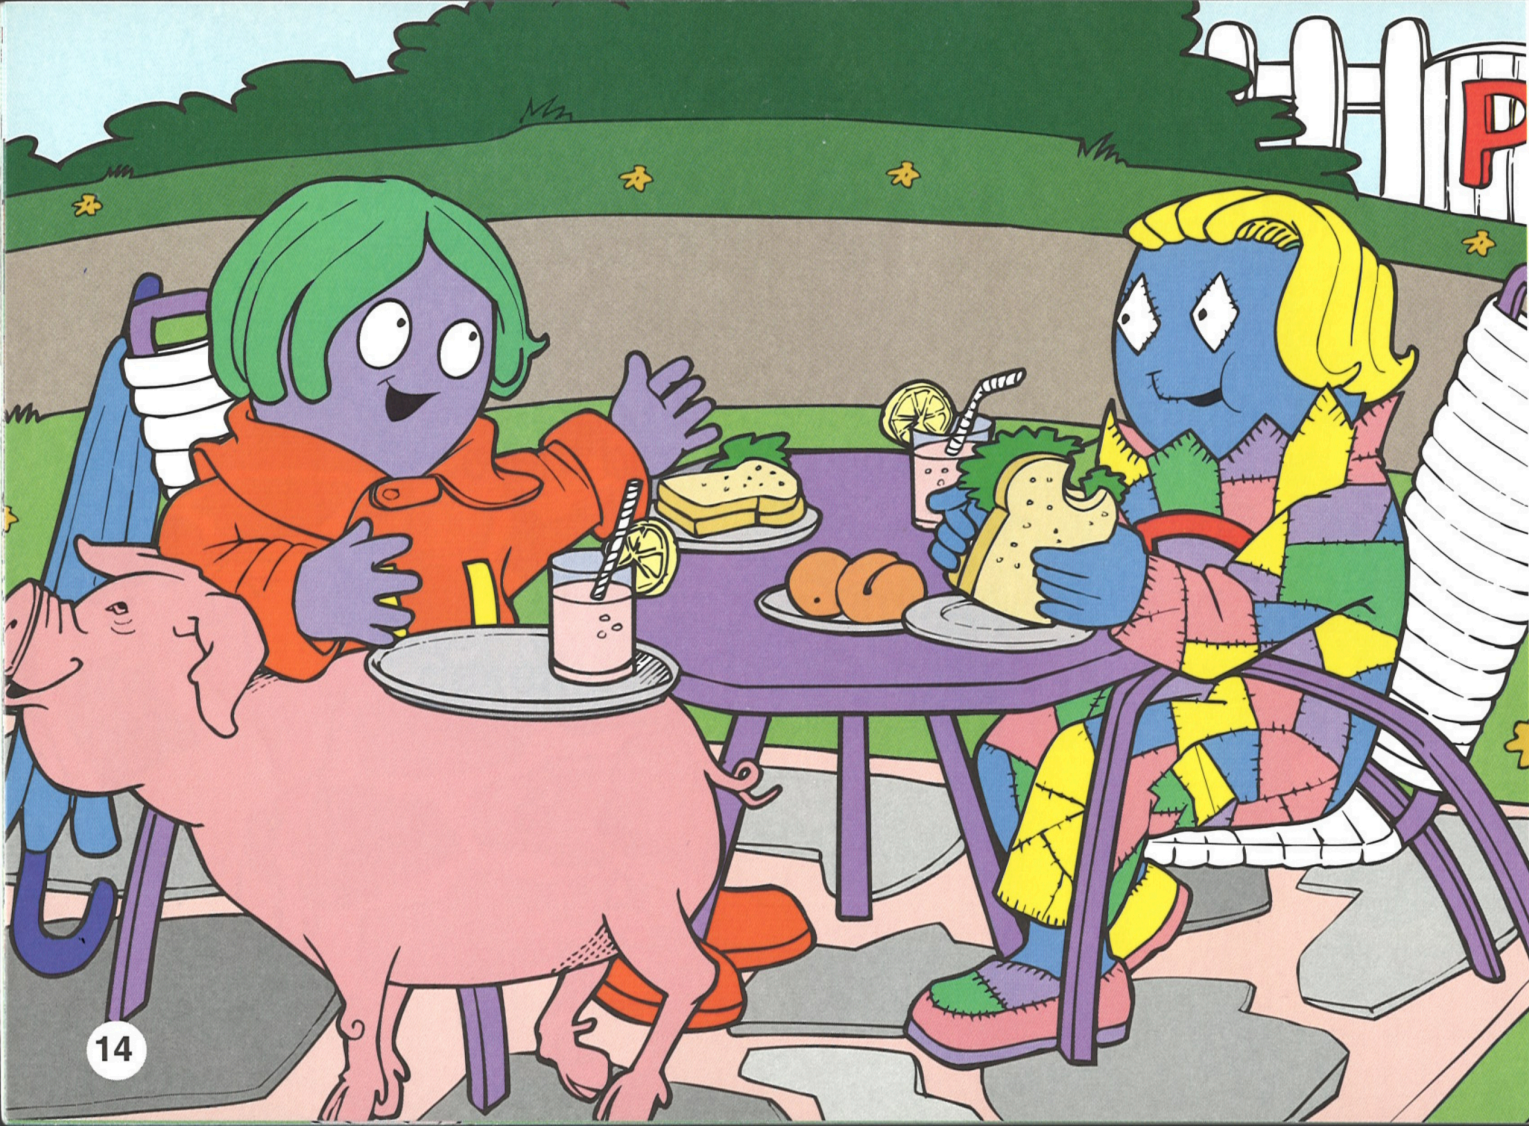

LetterLight U went here and there.

She saw me.

I was at the pump.

I was giving a pig a scrub in the tub.

LetterLight U came down with a big thump!

“LetterLight U, where did you fly?”

“Just here and there.”

The Author

Ms. P likes it when her friends drop in for a visit. One day, her friend LetterLight U dropped in after taking an unusual trip.

Ms. P was so excited about LetterLight U's trip that she wrote this book about it.
